

Guy A. E. VANDENBOSCH received the M.S. and Ph.D. degrees in Electrical Engineering from the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, Leuven, Belgium, in 1985 and 1991, respectively. From 1991 to 1993, he held a postdoctoral research position at the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven. Since 1993, he has been a Lecturer, and since 2005, a Full Professor at the same university. Guy Vandebosch has taught or teaches courses on “Electromagnetic Waves”, “Antennas”, “Electromagnetic Compatibility”, “Electrical Engineering, Electronics, and Electrical Energy”, and “Digital Steer- and Measuring Techniques in Physics”. His research interests are in the area of electromagnetic theory, computational electromagnetics, planar antennas and circuits, nano-electromagnetics, EM radiation, EMC, and bio-electromagnetics. His work has been published in ca. 265 papers in international journals and has led to ca. 360 papers at international conferences. Guy Vandebosch has been a member of the “Management Committees” of the consecutive European COST actions on antennas since 1993. Within the ACE Network of Excellence of the EU (2004-2007), he was a member of the Executive Board and coordinated the activity on the creation of a European antenna software platform. At present, he leads the EuRAAP Working Group on Software and represents this group within the EuRAAP Delegate Assembly. From 2001 to 2007, he was the President of SITEL, the Belgian Society of Engineers in Telecommunication and Electronics. From 2008 to 2014, he was a member of the board of FITCE Belgium, the Belgian branch of the Federation of Telecommunications Engineers of the European Union. In the period 1999-2004, he was vice-chairman, in the period 2005-2009 secretary, and in the period 2010-2017 chairman of the IEEE Benelux Chapter on Antennas en Propagation. In the period 2002-2004 he was secretary of the IEEE Benelux Chapter on EMC. In the period 2012-2014, he was secretary of the Belgian National Committee for Radio-electricity (URSI), where he is also in charge of commission E. Guy Vandebosch is a fellow of the IEEE. From September to December 2014, he was a visiting professor at Tsinghua University, Beijing, China.
